LISTENING: TAPESCRIPT

Task 1

1

Girl: Are you doing anything on Saturday night, Brandon? There is a good film on. We could go to the cinema together.

Brandon: Saturday night? I'm afraid I can't. I've got tickets for the rock concert in the city hall. Why don't you come with us?

Girl: That's a good idea.

2

Girl: Have a piece of this wonderful chocolate cake, Meg. A friend of mine made it this morning.

Meg: No, thanks. I've put on five kilos.

Girl: And now you're on a diet and don't eat any sweets?

Meg: Yes, and I definitely have to do some exercise. I'll start jogging in the park tomorrow.

3

Girl: Hi, Dave. I haven't seen you in the park all week.

Dave: I know. I usually try to go jogging every day, but Speedy has a bad leg and has problems walking.

Girl: Oh, poor old dog.

Dave: Yes, I'll have to take him to the animal clinic this afternoon.

4

Mum: Tom, you must practise the piano more often. The concert is only two weeks away.

Tom: But Mum, you know I don't feel well today. And I've already worked on my school project.

Mum: Ok. But you won't have any excuse next week.

Tom: Yes, Mum. I'll definitely practise an hour every day for the concert.

5

Girl: How's Paul? Is he still in bed?

Boy: No, he's a lot better.

Girl: That's good news. Then we can go to town and watch a movie.

Boy: Ah, no! He went to the doctor's yesterday. He still has to stay at home. Why don't we go and see him at the weekend?

Girl: Good idea. What can we bring him?

Task 2

Charlotte: Dad. Can I have my pocket money, please?
Father: Oh. I forgot to give it to you.
Charlotte: You and mum never remember to do that. And you've got lots of money.
Father: I guess you are right. How much do you get? £5?
Charlotte: Come on, dad, £15.
Father: Oh, why do you get that much? Didn't I give it to you on Thursday?
Charlotte: No, you didn't. And now it's Saturday and I still have no money. You normally pay me on Tuesday anyway.
Father: Well, I'm not sure if I have that much on me.
Charlotte: Then go to the bank.
Father: You know what, I'm not going anywhere now. I have to fix the cupboard in the kitchen first and then I want to have a bath.
Charlotte: Dad! What about the secret money box under your bed?
Father: How do you ...? Ok, I'll get some. Now, what are you going to do with the money?
Charlotte: I'm going to save some of it and with the rest I want to buy a new skirt.
Father: Well, as long as you don't use all of it for make-up and sweets.

Task 3

"Welcome to Royal Palace Zoo. Here is some useful information for you:
The zoo is located in King's Park. The best way to get there is by underground. Take the Airport Line to Royal Palace Station. From there, the zoo is within walking distance. You will see a lot of different animals from all over the world at our zoo, but there are extra attractions, too. The best one is our 'Elephant House' which is the biggest in Europe. It's between the 'Land of the Lions' and the monkey enclosure. You can visit the zoo all the year round except on Christmas Day. From April to August it is open from 10 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon, but it closes earlier in autumn and winter, in some months as early as at 3 p.m. To get into the zoo, adults have to pay £24.30 and children £18, but you can save more than £10 if you are a family. Then you only have to pay £54. For further information or to buy tickets, call the hotline. It's 555 020 7727 389. Of course you can also visit our website on www. ..."
